Fort Collier Civil War Center Annual Membership Meeting

The Stine House at Fort Collier
922 Martinsburg Pike, Winchester, Virginia
Thursday, March 21, 2024 @ 6:30 pm

Please join us for our Annual Meeting followed by some great food and refreshments!

Professor Jonathan Noyalas, director of Shenandoah University's McCormick Civil War Institute, will present "A Theme for the Poet, A Scene for the Painter", a discussion on how the decisive cavalry charge that sealed Union victory at the Third Battle of Winchester inspired artists, poets, and playwrights in the decades after the conflict.

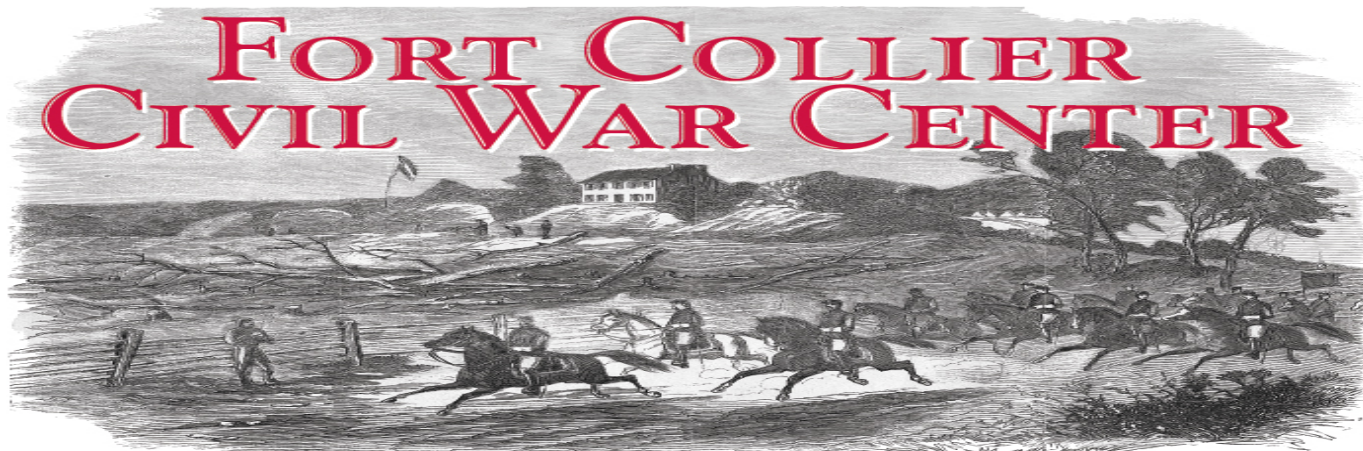

Come see the newly painted historic Stine House and the C. Robert Solenberger Reception Hall. We hope to see you at our Annual Meeting and thank you for your continued support.

2024-25 Board of Directors*

Katherine Solenberger - President
John Stevens - Chairman of the Board
Carol Bleck - Vice President
Phillip Griffin - Treasurer
Jonathan Noyalas - Secretary
Gary Bohnenkamp - Grounds and Maintenance Coordinator

Additional Board Members Include:

Robert Bleck, Stephen Butler
Peter LaBrecque, Fred Rickard
Patrick Stine

* The existing board members have all graciously agreed to serve again in their current capacity, however, new members are always welcome and nominations for additional members will be taken at the meeting.

Please help us to reduce our mailing costs by sending your current email address to Carol Covey, so that we may continue to keep you updated on upcoming events electronically, to include the 160th Anniversary of the 3rd Battle of Winchester this September. Again, Thank You!

Please RSVP/update email to: Carol Bleck @ cj\_bleck@yahoo.com (703-357-7680)
